2024-25 Rockford IceHogs Team Notes

Going Streaking

Coming out of the early February All-Star Break, the IceHogs went on a set of streaks that became unignorable. Over its next 20 games starting with a weekend set in Texas, Rockford would go on to lose three games in-a-row, win four straight, lose three, win four and then lose three again. A 2-1 loss to the Manitoba Moose on March 28 blocked what would have been another four-game winning streak, halting the pattern after almost two months of trends. The team went 11-9-0-0 during the stretch and solidified itself in the 5th spot of the Central Division.

Guttman The Great

Cole Guttman dominated the first half of the AHL season earning 43 points before the All-Star Break. His play earned him a spot in the 2025 AHL All-Star Classic in Coachella Valley along with IceHogs defenseman Kevin Korchinski. On March 8 with a goal and an assist vs. Texas, the forward surpassed his career high with points 48 and 49 on the year. The Northridge, CA native was Rockford's leading scoring for almost the entire season, finishing with 57 points and the scoring title.

Eight Games, Eight Rinks

For the first time in team history, the IceHogs played eight consecutive games in eight different rinks during late November into early December. The stretch began in Texas on November 23 and concluded 18 days later on December 11 in Iowa. Inbetween, the Hogs had one-game stops in Rockford, Milwaukee, Chicago, Lehigh Valley, Hartford and Springfield. Rockford covered over 3,500 miles across the country from Texas, to the Midwest, to the East Coast and back home. During this historic section of the schedule, the IceHogs held their own, going 2-3-3-0 and earning 7 out of 16 points. Along the way, the IceHogs were victorious at AllState Arena for the first time on the season, winning 6-3 powered by a Gerry Mayhew hat trick. The week after, Rockford and Lehigh Valley met for the first ever matchup on December 1, a game which the Hogs dominated 7-3 behind three-point nights from Frank Nazar and Landon Slaggert.

Commesso's March

IceHogs goaltender Drew Commesso recorded the best month of his professional career in March after returning from a lower body injury. The Boston native did not play from February 8 to 28 and returned roaring and healthy. The Hawks 2nd-rounder went 7-1-1-1 after returning from the injury and recorded two shutouts in that span (23/23 saves vs. Iowa and 26/26 vs. Hartford). Commesso rocked a 1.68 GAA and a .942% save percentage in the ten games. In contests that Commesso started in March, Rockford failed to record points on just one occasion.

Anders Called Up, Eaton Called In

On December 5, Blackhawks General Manager Kyle Davidson announced that the team had named Rockford IceHogs head coach Anders Sorensen its new interim head coach. Mark Eaton, Blackhawks Assistant General Manager overseeing player development, took over as the interim head coaching behind the Rockford. Eaton had spent 11 seasons working in Chicago's development department, but this was his first role behind the bench in pro hockey. The team went 23-24-4-2 following the switch and clinched a Central Division playoff spot on April 12.

Korchinski on the Scene

IceHogs' defenseman Kevin Korchinski helped to anchor the Rockford back end in his second professional season. Following a rookie year of 76 games in the NHL, the 20-year-old LHD was named one of Rockford's two representatives at the AHL All-Star Classic in Coachella Valley. Korchinski recorded one goal and three assists throughout the Central Division's round robin tournament and helped to secure the title with a shootout goal against the Atlantic Division in the championship game. The Saskatoon native earned two separate call-ups to the Blackhawks throughout the season, skating in 16 NHL games. Korchinski led all Rockford blueliners in scoring with 27 points (3g,24a) throughout 56 contests.

Joey for Four

Joey Anderson began the year with the Blackhawks and was assigned to Rockford when the calendar flipped to 2025. In just the second game with the Hogs this season, the veteran forward showed out on a Sunday in Rosemont. Anderson scored four goals and notched five points in a 5-3 victory over the Wolves. Two of his goals came on the power play, while he recorded a pair in the 1st period and a pair in the 3rd. Anderson went on to finish the season with 17 goals and, seven of which came against Rockford's biggest rival in Chicago.

Sanford's Second Half

Veteran forward Zach Sanford elevated his game when Rockford needed it most in the 2024-25 season. With injuries mounting to other experienced forwards keeping Seney and Anderson out of the Hogs' lineup, Sanford took over in February and March. The Stanley Cup Champion struck for 25 points in 22 games. Nine of those games were multi-point affairs and four of them went down as three-point nights. Sanford scored Rockford's first overtime winning goal during the regular season on March 1 in Tucson. The lefty collected his own rebound in the slot and shot the puck past former IceHogs' goaltender Jaxson Stauber to grab the extra point.

Rockstar Rookies

Rookie forwards Frank Nazar and Landon Slaggert tore onto the AHL scene with Rockford at the start of the season. Nazar, a 2022 1st-round pick, dominated in his 21 games with the IceHogs scoring 24 points (11g,13a) and recording eight multi-point games. The 21-year-old joined the Blackhawks in December and never looked back. Slaggert, stayed skated in the first 39 games of the season with the Hogs and earned 25 points (10g,15a) in the AHL. The Notre Dame product consistently brought his hard working effort to every shift, including with the Blackhawks for the second half of the regular season.

The Arty Party

After missing training camp and the first two weeks of the season with injury, Blackhawks #2 overall pick of 2024, Artyom Levshunov, made his professional debut on October 26 in Manitoba. The righty recorded an assist in that first game with the IceHogs and would conclude the year playing 52 games with Rockford, while snagging 22 points. Levshunov was called up to the Blackhawks and made his NHL debut on March 10 in Colorado against the Avalanche.

Nolan Allan (D, #42): Allan joined the IceHogs on Feb. 28 and met the team in Tucson in front of a two-game set against the Roadrunners. The former first-round pick of 2021 played 43 games with the Blackhawks in the first half of the season. With Chicago, Allan made his NHL debut in Utah on Oct. 8. He scored his first NHL goal on Dec. 19 in a victory against Seattle inside the United Center. The defenseman scored his only goal of the season with the IceHogs on Mar. 7 at home in a win against the Iowa Wild. That set off a stretch of points in back-to-back games for the Saskatchewan native. Allan finished the regular season with eight points and 16 penalty minutes, five courtesy of a fight in Grand Rapids on Mar. 22.

Joey Anderson (F, #22): Anderson began the season with the Blackhawks, skating in 18 games with the NHL club and recording one assist. The forward was assigned to the IceHogs for the third year in-a-row at the start of 2025. In just his second game back with Rockford, Anderson scored a career-high four goals and five points on Jan. 5 in a 5-3 win against the Wolves in Rosemont. It marked the first of three multi-goal games for the Roseville, MN native on the season. In late March, Anderson missed three weeks with a knee injury before returning for the playoff push in the middle of April. Anderson finished top five in IceHogs' scoring with 17 goals and 10 assists. His eight power play goals tied for the team lead.

Andreas Athanasiou (F, #88): Athanasiou joined the IceHogs on Nov. 13 after assignment by the Blackhawks. The proven NHL forward made immediate contributions to the IceHogs that day in Grand Rapids, scoring twice in the opening two periods against his former AHL club. Athanasiou suffered an injury in his third game with Rockford which held him out of the lineup for over two months. The winger returned to action in January and lit up the scoresheet, contributing points in 20 of his 30 games. From the end of February into most of March, the Ontario native recorded a seven-game point streak, the longest stretch for any IceHog this season.

Brandon Baddock (F, #13): In his second season with Rockford, Baddock more than doubled his point production from the year before, notching 3 goals and 4 assists through 38 games. The Alberta native scored a crucial insurance goal for Rockford on Feb. 17 in a 4-2 win on the road against the Wild. For the second-straight season, the forward led all IceHogs skaters in penalty minutes, earning 86. The veteran was traded to the Toronto Marlies on Mar. 14 (AHL Trade Deadline) in exchange for future considerations.

Jackson Cates (F, #63): After joining the IceHogs on a PTO in 2023, Cates took advantage of a full year in Rockford, contributing up and down the lineup. A coach's dream, the Minnesota native saw consistent time on both the power play and the penalty kill, while having success in the bottom-six. When injuries hit Rockford in the final quarter of the season, Cates stepped up to eat top line minutes. On Dec. 4, the 5th-year pro scored his first goal of the season against his former club in Lehigh Valley with his family in attendance. Rockford used Cates' opening goal to power past the Phantoms 7-3 in the first-ever matchup between the two organizations. On Mar. 25 at home against the Wolves, the lefty recorded his first-ever AHL hat trick in a 5-4 shootout loss inside the BMO Center. Cates scored his second and third goals of the night just 57 seconds apart from each other in the middle stages of the 2nd period.

Louis Crevier (D, #46): In his third professional season, Louis Crevier began the year in Rockford for the opening 11 games of the season. The French-Canadian recorded an assist during the Hogs' 4-1 opening night win against the Griffins. Crevier was recalled to the Blackhawks in November and would score his first NHL goal on Nov. 27 against the Stars on home ice. The 6'8 defenseman went on to score three goals with Chicago before rejoining the IceHogs for four games in late February. Crevier found the back of the net in his return to Rockford, scoring on Feb. 22 against the Phantoms. He would finish the season up with the Blackhawks and wound up playing 32 games with Chicago.

Drew Commesso (G, #33): Commesso returned for his second full season with Rockford, making 18 saves during a 4-1 opening night win vs. Grand Rapids. The 46th overall pick in the 2020 NHL Entry Draft earned a call-up to the Blackhawks and made his NHL debut on Dec. 12 against the Islanders, entering the game during the 3rd period. Two days later, Commesso started his first game for the Blackhawks in New Jersey, stopping 24 Devils' shots. The goaltender was reassigned to the IceHogs before the holiday break and then missed most of February with a lower body injury. After returning to the crease, Commesso went on a tear which began with his first start back in Tucson on Mar. 1. The Boston native went 7-1-1 in the ten games following his return and recorded two shutouts in that span (23/23 saves vs. Iowa and 26/26 vs. Hartford). Commesso rocked a 1.68 GAA and a .942% save percentage in the ten games. In contests that Commesso started in March, Rockford failed to record points on just one occasion. The goaltender led Rockford with 18 wins and a 2.54 goals against average, to go along with a .911 save percentage.

Colton Dach (F, #28): Colton Dach spent the 2024-2025 season splitting time between Rockford and Chicago. The winger scored the first goal of the season for the Hogs on Oct. 12 and would go on to record 12 goals and 26 points in 26 games played with Rockford. Dach made his NHL debut on Jan. 3 against the Montreal Canadiens and his brother Kirby. The lefty earned his first goal with the Blackhawks two weeks later in an overtime loss to the Tampa Bay Lightning. Dach suffered an elbow injury in the final month of the regular season, which held him out for the remainder of the year.

Ethan Del Mastro (D, #38): Fresh off his first pro year in which he was named the IceHogs' Rookie of the Year, Del Mastro took another strong step forward. The defenseman was tasked by the organization to fill more of the role of stay-at-home defenseman. His details and effort in his own zone brought him 24 games with the Blackhawks. Del Mastro scored two goals, including his first NHL marker on February 27 in Las Vegas against the Golden Knights. The 2021 fourth-round pick led the IceHogs in plus/minus with a +8 while skating in 47 games.

Colin Felix (D, #52): Felix played a depth role skating in 36 games with the IceHogs on the year during his first season in the Stateline. The Pennsylvania native scored one of the biggest goals of the season for Rockford on Dec. 14 against the Wild. Felix blasted in a slapshot from the far boards and ignited the annual Teddy Bear Toss in Rockford. The bruising righty was always quick to defend himself and his teammates, dropping the gloves a team-high six times.

Cavan Fitzgerald (D, #20): In his first season with the IceHogs, veteran defenseman Cavan Fitzgerald made an immediate impact from the moment he arrived in Rockford. The 28-year-old turned his PTO into a full contract with the IceHogs near the start of the season. Fitzgerald's consistency on the ice night in and night out provided a stabilizing force to the Rockford blue line this year, skating in over 60 games. The Boston, MA native led all IceHogs defensemen with seven goals on the year and added 13 assists as well. Fitzgerald never shied away from body contact, laying some of the marquee hits of the season for the IceHogs and was named the team's Heavy Hitter.

Ryan Gagnier (F, #74): Gagnier was re-signed to a one-year AHL contract in July of 2024 and ended up playing in 24 games with the IceHogs, following his 23 contests from the year before. The forward used his speed and battle-effort to carve out a role for himself in the Rockford bottom-six in the second half of the season. After starting the season in the ECHL with the Indy Fuel, Gagnier contributed to the Rockford offense quickly after his call-up, scoring in just his second game with the IceHogs of the year. Gagnier recorded his first American Hockey League fight in Tucson on February 28.

Ben Gaudreau (G, #31): In his rookie season, Ben Gaudreau played in five games with the IceHogs sporting a 2-2-0-0 record. On Dec. 15, Gaudreau made his first start with the IceHogs, turning away 19 Milwaukee shots in a 2-1 shootout win. After signing a one-year AHL contract in July, Gaudreau started the season with the Fuel and would play a whopping 43 games in the ECHL rocking a 2.48 GAA and a .902 save percentage. The 22-year-old was 2nd in the ECHL in minutes played.

Cole Guttman (F, #70): Cole Guttman had a career season in year three with the IceHogs, scoring 23 goals and recording 57 points. The California native was selected to the AHL All-Star Classic in his home state following his impressive first half of the season. In the month of December, Guttman's 15 points propelled the IceHogs through some of its toughest road stretches of the season. Guttman earned multi-point performances on 16 occasions, earned a trio of three-point games and even scored four points (1g,3a) during a January 5 win in Rosemont. With Rockford battling for playoffs points in the final weeks of the season, Guttman turned in a three-assist and six-shot performance against the Hartford Wolf Pack on Mar. 14.

Taige Harding (D, #47): Following the conclusion of his fourth and final season Providence College, Harding signed a two-year, entry-level contract with the Blackhawks and joined the IceHogs on an ATO for the remainder of the year. The defenseman made his professional debut in Grand Rapids on Apr. 4 and recorded his first point a week later with Tucson.

Gavin Hayes (F, #92): IceHogs rookie Gavin Hayes had a tale of two seasons for his first year in pro hockey and won the team's Most Improved award. Right as the forward was finding his groove on the ice in December, Hayes suffered a shoulder injury that would keep him out for two months. Following his return to the lineup, Hayes recorded nine points and had an impressive offensive stretch when Rockford needed its depth most. With the playoff push on, the Michigan native rattled off three multi-point performances in the span of four games (2g,4a).

Wyatt Kaiser (D, #44): Kaiser began his season up with the Blackhawks and was a main fixture in the NHL starting lineup for the first three months of the season. At the end of December, the defenseman joined the IceHogs in Manitoba for a four-game stint before the end of the calendar year. Shortly after heading back to Chicago, Kaiser scored his first NHL goal on Jan. 5 at the United Center against the Rangers. The Minnesota native would wind up skating in 57 games with Chicago, recording four goals and four assists. In 17 contests with Rockford in the AHL, Kaiser earned three helpers on the year.

D.J. King (D, #58): Defenseman D.J. King skated in six games with the IceHogs in 2024-25 season. He made his Rockford debut on Oct. 19 against Milwaukee. King spent the bulk of his year practicing with the IceHogs and playing games with the Fuel. In the ECHL, the 24-year-old suited up for 30 games and had three points (2g,1a).

Dmitri Kuzmin (D, #93): Kuzmin was acquired on Jan. 15 from the Winnipeg Jets in exchange for defenseman Isaak Phillips. The LHD provided great depth to the Rockford back end amidst call ups and injuries in the second half of the regular season.

Artyom Levshunov (D, #55): The Blackhawks #2 overall pick from the 2024 NHL Entry Draft made his professional debut with the IceHogs in Manitoba on Oct. 26. After suffering an injury that kept him out of training camp, the Belarusian defenseman earned his first pro point in his first game, grabbing an assist on a goal from his defense partner, Cavan Fitzgerald. Levshunov would play most of the season paired with Fitzgerald and gained confidence as the year went on. The right shot found the back of the net in his fifth game with the Hogs on Nov. 8 when he tied the contest against the Griffins in the 3rd period. The goal sparked the first of two season-long four-game point streaks for the 19-year-old. Levshunov finished the regular season with 22 points (5g,17a) in 50 games. On Mar. 11, Levshunov made his NHL debut with the Blackhawks in Colorado. The first-round pick grabbed six assists in the final 18 games Chicago's season.

Kevin Lombardi (F, #49): The rookie Lombardi spent most of his first pro season with the Fuel, recording 35 points (18g,17a) in 55 games with the IceHogs' ECHL affiliate. On Mar. 29, the Schuylkill, PA native made his AHL debut with Rockford hosting Manitoba. The 6'5 power forward scored in his first period of action and would go on to tack on a second AHL goal two weeks later throughout four AHL games.

Paul Ludwinski (F, #90): Ludwinski found his rhythm during his first full season with the IceHogs. The rookie joined Rockford for the tail end of the 2023-24 season and got in action for five games. It took Ludwinski some time to earn his first pro goal, but it finally came during a win on the road in Iowa on Dec. 28. The Wells Fargo Arena was a friendly spot for the 20-year-old, who notched his first multi-goal game with the IceHogs just weeks later as a visitor against the Wild. Ludwinski's confidence grew in the final two months of the season, and it showed with his ice time. The winger had back-to-back games with assists in early April during Rockford's push for the postseason.

Jalen Luypen (F, #73): The Blackhawks 2021 draft pick looked to pick up from where he left off with his 20-point season from the year prior. Luypen struggled out of the gate and was sent to the Indy Fuel in the ECHL for most of November. The lefty rejoined the IceHogs in December and found his game. On Dec. 22 in Manitoba, Luypen pounced for a goal and an assist in a blowout IceHogs' win. The Kelowna native had his best stretch of hockey when Rockford needed him most. Scoring against the Moose on Mar. 29, Luypen followed up his performance by recording goals in three-straight games, striking in both halves of a home-and-home series against Grand Rapids.

Kyle Maksimovich (F, #84): Maksimovich was signed over the summer to a one-year AHL contract and got into the IceHogs lineup during six games this season. His first and only Rockford point came as an assist on the lone goal the Hogs scored in Milwaukee on Apr. 13. The 27-year-old spent the bulk of his season in Indy, skating in 55 games and notching 34 points (16g,18a).

Marcel Marcel (F, #53): Marcel took strides in his second professional season, spending the full year in the AHL with Rockford. The forward finished with five goals and 14 points, playing in 41 games. On Feb. 14, the Plzen, CZE native had the best game of his young professional career. Against the Wolves on home ice, Marcel scored two goals and had a pair of assists to grab four points in a rivalry win. Marcel missed the final month of the season and underwent shoulder surgery in the middle of April.

Gerry Mayhew (F, #26): On Oct. 27, the IceHogs inked veteran forward Gerry Mayhew to a one-year AHL contract. A former American Hockey League MVP, Mayhew ate up excellent top six minutes playing with various forward line combinations. On Dec. 1, the 32-year-old notched the first hat trick of the season for the IceHogs, scoring three on the road against the Wolves in a win. That marked the first of a trio of three-point games for Mayhew.

Adam McCormick (D, #45): McCormick split his time in pro year one between the ECHL and the AHL. The defenseman skated in nine games with the IceHogs and 33 with the Fuel. The BC native played six straight games for Rockford in March and more than held his own, recording a +3 rating throughout the stretch.

Frank Nazar (F, #91): After getting in for three games with the Blackhawks last season, former first-round pick, Frank Nazar, made his IceHogs debut on opening night and earned four points in his first three AHL games. The Michigan product tore onto the scene averaging over a point per game in his 21 contests with the IceHogs. Nazar recorded eight multi-point games and was called up to the Blackhawks in the middle of December. The rookie forward never would return to the AHL and finished with 26 points (12g, 14a) with Chicago. Nazar scored in the Hawks season finale and won the game in a shootout in Ottawa.

Isaak Phillips (D, #41): 2024-25 marked Phillips' fifth season in the Stateline, and the lefty defenseman continued to provide stability and reliability to the Rockford blue line. The Ontario native got up for three games with the Blackhawks in early November and found the net against Anaheim during a 4-2 Chicago win. After joining the Hogs again, Phillips sniped in his first goal of the season in Rockford on Jan. 12. That would be the final game the 23-year-old would play with the IceHogs. The defenseman was traded to the Winnipeg Jets on Jan. 15 in exchange for blueliner Dmitri Kuzmin.

Matteo Pietroniro (D, #36): Pietroniro was acquired by the IceHogs on Jan. 5 from the Toronto Marlies in exchange for future considerations. The 26-year-old would skate in 26 games for the IceHogs, recording three points.

Ryder Rolston (F, #36): After playing a full season in Rockford the year prior, Rolston came into this season struggling to find the lineup consistently. He skated in six games with the IceHogs scoring one goal, before the Boston native was traded to the Nashville Predators in exchange for future considerations on Nov. 27.

Zach Sanford (F, #12): Veteran forward Zach Sanford elevated his game when Rockford needed it most in the 2024-25 season. With injuries mounting to other experienced forwards keeping Seney and Anderson out of the Hogs' lineup, Sanford took over in February and March. The Stanley Cup Champion struck for 25 points in 22 games. Nine of those games were multi-point affairs and four of them went down as three-point nights. Sanford scored Rockford's first overtime winning goal during the regular season on March 1 in Tucson. The lefty collected his own rebound in the slot and shot the puck past former IceHogs' goaltender Jaxson Stauber to grab the extra point.

Samuel Savole (F, #67): After suffering a season-ending injury during the lead up to last season, Savole burst onto the scene this past October fully healthy. The rookie quickly won over the Rockford faithful with his ability to bring energy and physicality to every shift, while also tacking on a goal on opening night. Savole tied for the Rockford lead with two shorthanded goals this season, while recording 22 points (7g, 15a) in total. For his play, Savole was named the IceHogs' Rookie of the Year.

Brett Seney (F, #62): In front of opening night at the BMO Center, IceHogs forward Brett Seney was named Rockford's captain. Seney was fresh off his best year as a professional, setting a career-high with 63 points and tying his career-high 23 goals, giving him the team's MVP award. The 29-year-old filled the scoresheet early and often, including a stretch of two-straight games with two assists in early December out east. At the end of 2024, Seney earned the honor to join Team Canada for the Spengler Cup in Davos, Switzerland. On Mar. 16, Seney suffered a knee injury on the road in Milwaukee. The captain missed three weeks of games but returned for a weekend set against Tucson in April, earning points in both games.

Landon Slaggert (F, #84): Slaggert played the first 39 games of the year with the IceHogs after skating in 16 games the year before with Chicago. In the AHL, the Notre Dame product rattled off ten goals and 15 points, including a three-assist night on Nov. 19 against the Stars. Slaggert was recalled on Jan. 26 to the Blackhawks and recorded six points in 33 games with the NHL club. The rookie made history on Feb. 1 in Florida when he scored the fastest goal to start a game in franchise history, scoring just seven seconds in against the Panthers.

Matus Spodniak (F, #75): In his second pro season, Spodniak got in for six games with the IceHogs in the AHL. He made his Rockford debut on Dec. 31 and scored his first American Hockey League goal on Jan. 12 against the Admirals inside the BMO Center. Spodniak had 13 points in 46 games with the Indy Fuel.

Austin Strand (D, #48): IceHogs defenseman Austin Strand skated in 21 games with Rockford to begin the season. He brought the BMO Center to its feet on Oct. 19 scoring a beautiful goal from the far side against the Admirals in the second game of the season. On Jan. 6, Strand was traded to the Utica Comets in exchange for future considerations.

Aidan Thompson (F, #78): Denver product, Aidan Thompson, joined the IceHogs in early April after the Pioneers were knocked out of the Frozen Four. A third-round pick from 2022, Thompson made his professional debut on Apr. 13 in Milwaukee skating on the IceHogs debut. The Colorado native recorded his first pro point on Apr. 18 with an assist on Cavan Fitzgerald goal against the Griffins.

Mitchell Weeks (G, #80): Weeks made crucial contributions in net for Rockford with goaltending injuries impacting the Blackhawks for the entire season. Entering the season, Weeks had played 17 games over his previous two seasons in the AHL. The Barrie, Ontario native blew that games played number out of the water with 32 appearances this season. With Drew Commesso up with the Blackhawks, Weeks carried the goaltending load for most of December and in March with Commesso out with injury. On Feb. 1, the goalie provided a spark in the shootout against Milwaukee, stoning Kieffer Bellows to secure the extra point for the IceHogs. From Feb. 14 to Feb. 21, Weeks rattled a career long three-game winning streak in the AHL.
